Please note carefully – this is for your protection

The mover/carrier cannot be held responsible for items left at residence after loading. It is your responsibility to make sure that nothing is left behind. Please make sure you check closets, cabinets, drawers, attics, neighbors’ residence, basements and outside areas before signing final inventory documents.

Our insurance policy states that we will, “without discrimination between shippers, refuse to accept for transportation, bank bills, coin or currency, deeds, notes, drafts or valuable papers or any kind, jewelry, postage or revenue stamps, stamp collects, precious stones or articles of peculiarly inherent or extraordinary value, precious metals or articles manufactured there from”. These items must be your responsibility to take with you.

Any property damage to residence at origin or destination must be so noted at time of loading or delivery.

It is very important that you carefully read and understand the lower left area of the Shipper’s Letter of Instruction marked “Shipment Origin”. Carrier liability for loss or damage will be determined by how you complete this section. If you have any questions regarding your valuation options and their costs, please contact Baron Worldwide for clarification before signing.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read the above and understand my responsibility.
